

APPLICATION FOR 2017 UNACCOMPANIED CHILDREN'S CONFERENCE

September 13–15, 2017

Location: South Texas College of Law Houston
1303 San Jacinto St, Houston, TX 77002

The ABA and KIND are organizing a free national conference on unaccompanied children's issues to be held from Wednesday, September 13 through Friday, September 15. The conference will take place in Houston, Texas, at the South Texas College of Law Houston. We plan to offer a basics track the morning of Wednesday, September 13, and initiate the full conference in the afternoon.

To request attendance, please fill out and submit the following:

Name: _____

Email: _____

Telephone: _____

Organization: _____

Office address: _____

Position title: _____

Years of experience working with unaccompanied children: _____

This conference is open to individuals engaged in the provision of free or pro bono legal services on behalf of unaccompanied minors. Please note, due to limited slots for this conference, organizers reserve the right to review applications and approve participation to ensure a variety of participants and perspectives. We ask that no more than two individuals from a single office (not organization) participate, certain exceptions are possible. This conference is not open to federal government employees.

Please send your completed application by Friday, June 2, 2017, to UCconference2017@gmail.com.